Freedom Riders Misc.

With reference to information previously received alleging that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) will sponsor a group of Negroes who will make bus trips from Mississippi into neighboring states to test various facilities, ASAC Joseph Sylvester of the New Orleans Office has furnished the following information:

Medgar Evers, NAACP Field Secretary, State of Mississippi, advised today he knows of no plans by NAACP for Negroes to go to Mississippi or to neighboring states to test facilities. He believes activities of Mississippi members of NAACP should be confined to home area. Evers stated it would be unlikely that they would go to other states for any type of demonstrations. He said if such activities were planned by NAACP organization members in Mississippi, he would know about it. [redacted] NAACP, Biloxi, Mississippi, and [redacted] Gulfport, Mississippi, today said they knew of no such plans. Latter said NAACP condones freedom riders but does not sponsor any groups of freedom riders.

Jackson Police Department, New Orleans Police Department, Louisiana and Mississippi State Police and Counterintelligence Corps, New Orleans, have been advised.

ACTION:

We will continue to follow this matter closely and you will be advised promptly of any pertinent developments.

According to PIERCE, some of the defendants would be transferred to the Hinds County Jail, Jackson, to serve out their sentences and fines and some would be housed in the Jackson City Jail to assist the Sheriff in overcoming crowded facilities at the County Jail.

PIERCE advised there were no incidents during the course of the above trial.

Chief of Detectives M. B. PIERCE, Police Department, Jackson, Mississippi, advised that sometime after his arrest on June 10, 1961, Freedom Rider [redacted] Chicago, Illinois, [redacted] had advised that he wanted to talk with Police officials at Jackson. PIERCE stated that [redacted] was interviewed by detectives and told them that the only reason he had joined the Freedom Rider group was [redacted]

[redacted] Chief PIERCE made available a photostat copy of a voluntary statement furnished by [redacted] and signed by him. This statement is set out below:

[redacted]

"My home is in [redacted] I was born in [redacted] Madison County. I left Florida, where I had been working, [redacted] and went to Chicago. I tried to get a job and was unsuccessful. I was stranded. I went to the welfare department because someone had told me they would help me get back home, but they could not assist me because I was single. Then I stayed around - I guess you could call it bummed around - for a couple of days.

"Then [redacted] I guess he is some kind of [redacted] he lived in my neighborhood in [redacted] came to me and told me about the freedom rides. To them it might have been a freedom ride; to me [redacted] I asked one question, 'When do I leave?' Then I told them, 'Put me on the first bus.'

[redacted]

[redacted] I signed the application; I didn't even read it and don't know what was in it. I don't care about the jail, because I'd rather be in jail here than in Chicago.

"I went to the CORE workshop at the Liberty Missionary Baptist church in Chicago where they were training for non-violence. CORE gave me $20 to get to Nashville, then in Nashville they gave me $15 to get to Jackson. I went to another workshop in Nashville. They teach you how to act when you are mobbed; you're supposed to just stand off and take it. I didn't get roughed up because I had the good fortune of playing the part of a policeman.

"I started to get off in Belzoni or Indianola and walk the rest of the way home. I don't know why I didn't.

"One of the girls on the bus, [redacted] told me she had been in Cuba. Naturally I was interested in why. She said she had been associated with or had been a part of the Communist party. I don't know exactly. She is here now.

"Did I care about freedom? Freedom or slavery or what have you, as long as I got back. I might be in jail but at least I'm home. Free? I was in jail in a sense in Chicago; I had nobody to turn to, no money.

"I didn't tell anyone from CORE that I was from [redacted] I gave them my Chicago address. The welfare department office that I went to in at 25 Damon Street, I think.

"When I lived in [redacted] I went to school at the [redacted] high school, then to [redacted] [redacted] I also went to the [redacted] Baptist seminary for a while. I did restaurant work. My work in [redacted] was seasonal work and when they started laying off at the end of the winter, I was one of the unfortunate ones laid off. That's why I went to Chicago.

"Was I scared to come with the freedom riders? Well, I thought I was going to die up there, I might as well die at home. If you're sick up there, there's no medical care unless you have money. I'm not saying what I think, I'm saying what I know. You could lay down on the sidewalk and die.

"They want to invade the South with the same thing they have up there and worse.

"I'm a [redacted] assignment was three members. I couldn't very well live on $1.50 a month. That's when [redacted] and the people of [redacted] county were [redacted] Something like that stays with you.

"Would I advise the people of my race to go to Chicago? Yes, if they want to die. If they want to hold four or five jobs and still winding up oweing everybody, it's their own business.

"Riding with the freedom riders isn't the best way to travel. Most of them are uncharactered. What is it about them that I didn't like? Turn it around and ask me what is it about them that I do like and I'll come up with zero everytime. The white people that are riding with them are demoralized - that's as nice as I can put it. The freedom riders need converting or convicting or something.

"I told the police and CORE that I was arrested for picketing in Memphis in 1955. That wasn't true, but I had to tell them something. If I had told them the truth, I would still be in Chicago.

"When I got there, I don't know why I went in the station, but I did. I didn't sit down at the counter, though. I was the only one who didn't sit down. I would not have stopped at all if one of the police had not stopped me. I wouldn't have joined the freedom riders if they had been going anywhere else but Jackson. Now all I want is to serve my time, live a quiet life and be forgotten. I'm very glad to be home.

"Some of the other freedom riders in my cell feel the same way I do. They've found out it's not such a picnic any more. A fellow who came with me immediately found out it was no picnic.

"The Negro in the South is much better off right here. He is better in health, in prosperity and in job opportunity. We as Negroes - and I think I know the Negro - forget that before we can really accomplish anything we must develop in a lot of ways ourselves. We produce little, but we consume so much. Before a person can say, 'I want this,' he must do something. I don't blame the Southern white man for protesting. We are not ready for equality. This is what I preaches in my church.

"The Negro has opportunity. It is for him to become a dignified man, to stop rassling with his girls, to put it bluntly. The Southern Negro has been and is being used as a political football. Integration is not a thing that you can say, 'Here.' I for one don't what to go where you people go.

NO 167-299

I don't want to go anywhere I'm not welcome. I want to sit down and eat where I am 100 per cent welcome, and by welcome, I mean with heart and soul.

"CORE is taking the weaker minded people and showing them the world on a silver platter. Martin Luther King is a shrewd fellow or he wouldn't be making as much money off the Negro as he is. Everytime the plate is passed in Chicago, [redacted] in New York and Martin Luther King sit back and laugh at the stupid, ignorant Negro and Coretta King goes downtown and gets her a nice dress. CORE is not interested in violence or nonviolence - just money. The motives of CORE are wrong. They say God is on their side. I don't think so.

"There is as much and more so bias, prejudice and hate in the North as there is here. I don't blame the Southerner, some of my people I don't want to associate with. Has King got a racket? I would say that and I would tell him that.

"CORE hasn't had any response from the Negro in Mississippi. You people hold his economy in your hands and no one is going to just leave his job. I would suggest that the South not give them any publicity. That way you cut them in two.

"Everytime something happens down here, the Northern newspapers sell a million dollars and someone sitting on his can with the paper upside down says, 'Look here what's going on down South.'

"I wouldn't say that I took a 'freedom ride.' I would say that I took them for a ride. They're making a fool out of some Negroes so why not alternate this thing around. If they were to pay my bail would I take it? It's according to the way they arranged it. If they wanted me to go somewhere else, no, but if they were going to just give me free money, I'd take it.

"Maybe this thing is doing some people a favor. Most of the freedom riders are better off here in jail than they were in Chicago. At least here they've got food.

"Most of them will go back where they are from when they are set free. CORE told them they would make arrangements for them to get back to Chicago. They didn't know about the four months sentence, but if it had been six or four years, I would have done the same thing to get home. I was really incapacitated.

"I think I'll frame this dollar. It's the last one left from the money CORE gave me. I think I'll write on it, 'CORE - Thank you.'

Following info pertains to press conference held by Col. T. B. BIRDSONG, Commissioner of Public Safety, MHSP, Jackson, Miss., 6/29/61, in which he stated Freedom Riders trained in Cuba.

On 7/3/61, following supplementary news release made by Col. BIRDSONG regarding this matter was received from Col. BIRDSONG's office:

"Following a long established pattern, the spokesmen for various organizations have reacted as predicted to the release yesterday of information disclosing the Communist influence behind the recent flood of race agitators in Jackson. Following a morning news conference at Highway Patrol Headquarters, news media throughout the nation jumped on the story and began clamoring for more.

"Col. T. B. BIRDSONG, Commissioner of Public Safety, elaborated on yesterday's conference. He stated 'The Highway Patrol has not formed a special bureau. We are using existing men in our Identification Bureau for this work. We have added no one to the staff for this purpose. used for all cases whether bank robbery, larceny, in fact, any subject that comes under scrutiny by the Identification Bureau. It was released because the public has the right to know what type of people these are.

'There are two other points that were not made quite clear in reports yesterday. The first is, that we made no mention of receiving information on these people from the FBI. We work with the FBI on the same terms as our cooperation with Sheriffs, Constables, Police Departments, and enforcement agencies in other states. In fact, mutual cooperation is a basic requirement in law enforcement. None of the information on these people has been supplied to any member of our department by the FBI. It was secured through our own efforts from our own sources. Neither have they supplied any type of background material. We did not state that the FBI had the 'known Communist' mentioned in the release under surveillance. We don't know who they have under surveillance. As a matter of fact, it is one of the state governments that had this man under observation.

'The final point concerns a statement that appeared alleging that the Mississippi Legislature was to blame for this situation by failing to continue the MBI. On its face this statement is absurd! The MBI was formed to combat this type of thing and we stated yesterday that had it been continued we would have had the benefit of its investigations throughout the ensuing years instead of the responsibility of accumulating this material now. Other states have been pursuing this for 10 years or longer and, consequently, have quite a head start on us. With the caliber of men working in our department, we will soon be abreast of them.'

Six male Negroes were arrested at the Illinois Central Railroad station and six more arrested at the Greyhound bus station, both in Jackson, Mississippi, after they entered white waiting rooms in the respective stations and failed to move on, at orders of the Jackson Police Department. All are residents of Jackson and they have been charged with breach of the peace. No incidents occurred.

Since May 24, 1961, one hundred ninety freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson of which sixty-six have been released on bond, four have paid fines and one has been released to his attorney. One hundred nineteen remain in custody.

Reverend Martin Luther King was the principal speaker at an organizational rally of the Jackson Nonviolent Movement held at the Negro Masonic Temple in Jackson, Mississippi, on July 6, 1961, which was attended by about fifteen hundred persons. Reverend King spoke in generalities and stated that the nonviolent protests against segregation must continue and the President of the United States should issue a second Emancipation Proclamation. He added that Negroes must press for legislation ending lynching, the payment of poll taxes and making voting a reality for all people. Reverend King outlined no specific plans or actions to be taken. It was reported that between seven hundred fifty dollars and one thousand dollars were collected. Five police officers were on duty and no white people were observed in the area. No incidents occurred in connection with this rally.

Two officials representing Minnesota Governor Elmer L. Andersen proceeded to the Mississippi State Penitentiary at Parchman, Mississippi, to inspect living conditions for five Minnesota freedom riders. Mississippi Governor Ross Barnett called a meeting of state officials to discuss "freedom riders and communism."

On July 6, 1961, United States District Judge Sidney C. Mize, sitting in chambers at Gulfport, Mississippi, denied a certificate of probable cause filed by the attorneys for [redacted] a freedom rider from New York City. Judge Mize stated it would be improper for him to enter the case until it had been taken through the state courts. [redacted] one of the attorneys for [redacted] claimed that the state courts are behind segregation and could not be expected to render a fair verdict.

The trial of [redacted] a freedom rider arrested in the bus station at Ocala, Florida, [redacted] commenced on July 6, 1961, before Judge Lewis C. Myers, Marion County, Florida, and a jury was selected. The trial is to continue today.

Additional groups of freedom riders from Los Angeles, California, and Montgomery, Alabama, are reportedly scheduled to leave for Jackson, Mississippi, today.

On July 5, 1961, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Henry Winston, who was convicted of violation of the Smith Act and who was recently pardoned by the President, held a press, radio and television interview at Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) headquarters in New York City. Winston was asked if the CP, USA takes any credit for the freedom riders. Winston declined to answer stating he had been in jail and did not know the position of the CP, USA on this question. He added that the CP, USA has always been in the fight for equality and would lend every possible support for those proceeding in the direction of equality.

Gus Hall, General Secretary, CP, USA interrupted at this point to comment "we" have not organized the freedom rides but "we" give them full support. Whenever such struggles take place "I" am sure you will find some communists in them.

The Attorney General

[redacted] a freedom rider arrested in the bus station at Ocala, Florida, on [redacted], was tried before a jury in Marion County Court, Ocala, Florida, on July 7, 1961, and found guilty of the charge of unlawful assembly. PROPOSED FREEDOM RIDERS TRIP
TO JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI,
LEAVING LOS ANGELES,
CALIFORNIA, JULY 12, 1961

The "Los Angeles Times" for June 17, 1961, carried an article stating that the Second Baptist Church, 2412 Griffith Avenue, Los Angeles, will sponsor an integrated Freedoms Riders bus trip to Jackson, Mississippi, leaving Los Angeles July 12, 1961, according to the pastor, Dr. J. Raymond Henderson. The article states that church members had already contributed more than $2,000.00 for the trip and that there would be a "Freedom Riders" rally at the church on the evening of June 25, 1961.

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on [redacted] that the [redacted] had stated on the same day that the trip would be under the joint sponsorship of the church and the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). [redacted] further stated that they hoped to have between twenty and thirty people make the trip but as yet they did not have that many.

This same source attended the rally at the Second Baptist Church, 2412 Griffith Avenue, Los Angeles, on the evening of June 25, 1961, at which time it was announced that so far ten people, nine Negroes and one White, had signed up for the trip and they hoped to get twenty more between now and July 12, 1961.

It was further stated at this meeting that the church had the support of CORE and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People for the trip. It was announced that over $3,000.00 had been raised, which would be enough to send thirty people, if they could get that many.

FREEDOM RIDE - 1961

On June 26, 1961, the following letter was received at the office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) at Jackson, Mississippi:

"June 25, 1961

"Dear Sir:

"During the past week I have contacted Sheriff Gilfof of Hinds County, both by telephone and by letter, on the placement of Freedom Riders in maximum security units at the state prison in Parchman, Mississippi.

b6
b7C

"Certainly the people transferred from county jail are grateful to be relieved of overcrowded conditions. But 'maximum security' restrictions seem unnaturally harsh punishment for even a genuine misdemeanor, much less this special, artificial one.
It clearly exceeds the limits prescribed by Section 2087.5 of the Mississippi Code, the statute under which these people were convicted.

"This introduces the question of possible violation of the Eighth Amendment of the Federal Constitution. Accordingly, the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) enters this urgent request that the Department of Justice make an official inquiry into prison conditions presently affecting those Freedom Riders confined at the state prison at Parchman, Mississippi.

"Respectfully,

CORE

c/o Atty.

NO 157-293

Information concerning this matter was furnished to the following individuals on June 7, 1961:

Chief of Detectives M. B. PIERCE, Police Department, Jackson, Mississippi, by SA [REDACTED]

Colonel T. B. BIRDSONG, Commissioner, Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol, Jackson, Mississippi, by SA [REDACTED]

Sheriff J. ROBERT GILFOY, Hinds County, Jackson, Mississippi, by SA [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Special Agent, Illinois Central Railroad, by SA [REDACTED]

Date 6/14/61

The following was observed at the Illinois Central Depot, Jackson, Mississippi:

Illinois Central Train #2 arrived at Jackson, Mississippi Illinois Central Depot, East Capitol Street, at 10:20 a.m., June 8, 1961. The train is known as "City of New Orleans".

Approximately three minutes after the train arrived at the station, four white females and one Negro female entered the waiting room of the Illinois Central Railroad Station opening on East Capitol Street. Directly in front of the doors opening into this waiting room was a white metal sign on which appeared, "Waiting Room for White Only, Order of Police Department". The sign had an arrow pointing to the waiting room referred to above. By this sign was another sign on which appeared, "Waiting Room for Colored Only, Order of Police Department". This sign had an arrow pointing to the waiting room of the Illinois Central Railroad Station which opens on Mill Street.

The group, consisting of 4 white females and 1 Negro female walked to a position at the front of the waiting room opening on East Capitol Street and there sat down on a bench. At that time, Captain [redacted] Jackson, Mississippi Police Department, in uniform, told this group "You must move on", he then repeated this, and they remained seated. He then said, "You have heard my order", and they remained seated. He then told them they were under arrest. b6 b7C

Just after the group of females referred to above, entered the waiting room, as indicated above, they were followed by a group of four male Negroes. They walked over to the left side of the waiting room and stood there. Captain [redacted] Jackson Police Department, then walked over to this group and made the same statements as made to the female group as indicated above. This male group stood there and Captain [redacted] then advised them they were under arrest.

In addition to the groups referred to above, there were approximately seven or eight uniformed police officers in the room, three or four Detectives of the Jackson Police Department, five or six individuals with camera equipment who appeared to be newspaper reporters. Also, there were about fifteen or twenty people in the waiting room apparently passengers.

On 6/8/61 at Jackson, Miss. File # 157-293

by SA [redacted] /dfs Date dictated 6/9/61

NO 157-293

After the individuals in the group, referred to above, were placed under arrest, they were directed by four or five uniformed police officers, to the Police Patrol Wagon, parked at the Taxi Unloading platform at the west side of the station.

The officers appeared to have no other equipment other than the usual sidearms. No incidents were observed to occur and the group went quietly to the Patrol Wagon and entered the same as directed by the officers and were driven away.

From the time of the arrival of the train until the group was placed in the Patrol Wagon was about fifteen minutes.

Date 6/14/61

At 9:48 a.m., SA SAMUEL E. VIRDEN, II observed the lobby and waiting rooms of the Illinois Central Railroad Station in Jackson, Mississippi. The waiting rooms are marked only as waiting rooms and are not marked as being waiting rooms for white and/or Negro. However, the following signs are in the passageway between the large waiting room, generally used by white people and the stairs where train passengers come down from the trains: "WAITING ROOM - WHITE ONLY - BY ORDER POLICE DEPT."; WAITING ROOM, COLORED ONLY, BY ORDER POLICE DEPT." Each of these signs has an arrow which points toward the designated waiting room. During my observation of this area, I observed Lt. [redacted] with four uniformed officers of the Jackson Police Department in the waiting room designated for colored passengers and Captain [redacted] with 7 uniformed officers in the waiting room designated for white passengers. Also present were three detectives of the Jackson Police Department and Illinois Central Special Agent [redacted]

[redacted] There were also numerous newspaper and television reporters and cameramen present. The officers of the Police Department requested all persons in the station waiting room who did not have tickets or other necessary business to leave the area which all did, going quietly. The area around the station was quiet and with no more than the normal amount of traffic, foot and automobile on the outside. At 10:20 a.m., Illinois Central Train #2, referred to as the "City of New Orleans" arrived at the station on the platform over the waiting rooms. Shortly thereafter passengers descended the stairs from the station platform. During this time, I observed the waiting room designated for colored passengers and no white persons entered this waiting room.

FREEDOM RIDERS MISC

Article, St. Louis Globe-Democrat, 6/21/61, states CHARLES R. OLDHAM, St. Louis attorney and National Chairman, Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), visited some of the "freedom riders" in jail at Hinds County Jail, Jackson, Mississippi, "last weekend."

OLDHAM quoted as saying he found 14 white women in a cell about 13' x 15' in size, including bath facilities; that the prisoners do not have beds but sleep on the floor; the Negro girls "are in a similar situation" except that they have been placed in two cells and do not have the same crowded conditions. OLDHAM further quoted as saying most of men arrested as "freedom riders" at Jackson have been sent to the maximum security section of the State Penitentiary at Parchman, Miss., and are subjected to the same rules as maximum security felons. He stated they are rarely permitted out of their cells, cannot have printed material, may write and receive two letters weekly, and are not allowed cigarettes. He asserted, "There is nothing to do but sit and think or sleep."

Article quotes Sheriff J. R. GILFOY at Jackson as denying "riders" treated as felons. He stated if such were true they would be out in fields working like regular convicts. He said Hinds County sent a man to take charge of "freedom riders" at State Penitentiary as long as they are there. Further stated, "We went to a lot of trouble to get a place where they couldn't create an incident."

FREEDOM RIDERS MISC.

DECLASSIFIED BY SP-4 byatg
ON 6/20/00

Nine freedom riders proceeded from Montgomery, Alabama, to Jackson, Mississippi, by Trailways bus on June 21, 1961. They were arrested in Jackson without incident.

Members of the group were served at a lunch counter in the Montgomery bus station after being required to establish their status as interstate passengers by exhibiting their bus tickets. While they were boarding the bus at Montgomery, a firecracker exploded approximately thirty yards away. No other incidents occurred.

One hundred forty freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson since May 24, 1961. Forty-four have been released on bond, four have been released after paying fines and ninety-two remain in custody.

[redacted] who was arrested at Jackson, Mississippi, on June 2, 1961, has filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in U. S. District Court, Biloxi, Mississippi. At a hearing on June 21, 1961, it was alleged by the City of Jackson that the petition was premature because remedies available in State Court had not been exhausted. Counsel for the petitioner argued that no relief could be expected from Mississippi State Courts. United States District Judge S. C. Lize took the matter under advisement and is to render a decision by June 27, 1961.

Four freedom riders from Los Angeles, California, were scheduled to arrive in New Orleans, Louisiana, this morning. They are to be joined by ten San Francisco, California, freedom riders who are to arrive in New Orleans on June 23, 1961. The combined group will travel to Jackson, probably on June 26, 1961.

The Attorney General

The local press in San Francisco on June 20, 1961, reported that Buron Teale was proceeding to New Orleans with a group of freedom riders. One Buron Teale allegedly was a member of the Oakland-Berkeley, California, branch of the Socialist Workers Party from February, 1959, to May, 1960.

Eight of the rabbis and ministers who were arrested at Tallahassee, Florida, on June 16, 1961, returned to Tallahassee by airplane on June 21, 1961. The airport restaurant was closed but two white clergymen used the colored rest room without incident. Trial for those who were arrested on June 16, 1961, on charges of unlawful assembly is scheduled for June 22, 1961.

It was planned by local authorities that the restaurant would be closed when the group arrived in Tallahassee on June 21, 1961. It was also anticipated that if they should arrive when the restaurant was open and if they should demand service, arrests would be made by the Sheriff's Office under a statute which provides that the owner of a restaurant may refuse service to anyone. The Sheriff's Office would have been used instead of the police in order to bring a test case into the county court.

We have been informed that the Florida Civil Liberties Union has retained four Miami attorneys to represent the freedom riders at Tallahassee. The attorneys are [REDACTED]

The City Prosecutor believes that the defense will challenge the authority of the Tallahassee police to make arrests at the airport which is outside the city limits, although it is owned by the city. It is also believed by the prosecutor that the defense will challenge the constitutionality of the unlawful assembly statute.

Trial has been postponed until July 5, 1961, for the three freedom riders who were arrested on June 16, 1961, at the Ocala, Florida, bus station.

We have been advised that seventy persons attended a meeting of the Washington, D. C., Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) on June 20, 1961.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The Attorney General

Details of the meeting are summarized as follows:

The primary purpose of the meeting was to discuss "Operation Vacation in Jail," which is still in the formative stages. Under this operation, as many freedom riders as possible would leave Washington, D. C., on July 1, 1961, for a one-week tour of southern states. Any who might be arrested would stay in jail as long as possible.

It was stated that the freedom riders from Washington who were to go to Tallahassee on June 20, 1961, rescheduled their trip for June 23, 1961, at the request of CORE national headquarters in order to postpone the trip until after the trial at Tallahassee on June 22, 1961.

A committee was established to investigate discrimination in employment with particular regard to the hiring practices of the Hecht Company and Hahn Shoe Stores. A committee was also established to determine whether discrimination is being practiced by the Levitt housing development at Bel Air, Maryland.

It was stated that the next national project of CORE will be the picketing of Federal buildings throughout the country on July 4, 1961, but that this will occur only if the Interstate Commerce Commission has not ordered the desegregation of all interstate transportation facilities.

Further developments will be reported promptly.

Reference is made to the memorandum dated June 22, 1961, from [redacted] of your Division relative to captioned individual.

The following information has been ascertained by our Memphis Division from [redacted] of the Mississippi State Penitentiary at Parchman, Mississippi.

[redacted] was transferred from Jackson, Mississippi, to the Mississippi State Penitentiary on June 15, 1961. He has allegedly been on a hunger strike since he was first arrested in Jackson on June 2, 1961. He was weighed by penitentiary authorities on June 16, 1961, at which time he weighed 127 pounds. He weighed 124½ pounds when weighed by penitentiary authorities on June 20, 1961. He was given a physical examination by the prison doctor at 11:30 A.M., June 23, 1961, and his physical condition was reported to be good although the doctor did feel that [redacted] was underweight. The doctor reportedly was of the opinion that [redacted] was getting food from some source since he only lost 2½ pounds in the period of a week.

A signed statement obtained from [redacted] by prison authorities on June 23, 1961, contains [redacted] statement that he is not sick and is on a hunger strike voluntarily for "the cause." He reportedly has commented that he does not intend to eat until the buses at Jackson, Mississippi, are integrated. He is offered food at the same time other prison inmates are fed. He will be examined by the doctor in prison hospital facilities if he claims to be sick and otherwise he will be examined weekly.

In view of the above developments, no further inquiries are being made unless specifically requested by you.

Three freedom riders were arrested for breach of the peace at the Trailways bus terminal, Jackson, Mississippi, on the afternoon of 7/5/61 after they entered the white waiting room and expressed the intention of purchasing bus tickets and failed to move on, at orders of the Jackson Police Department (PD). They stated that they were protesting their "second class" citizenship. These three freedom riders are all from Jackson, Mississippi. No incidents occurred and no date has been set for their trial.

A similar incident occurred at 11 PM (Central Standard Time), 7/5/61 at Jackson, Mississippi, on which occasion six Negro male freedom riders, residents of Jackson, also entered the white waiting room in the Trailways bus terminal and expressed the intention of buying tickets to New Orleans. They also were arrested for breach of the peace and no further incidents occurred.

As of 1 AM (Washington time) 7/6/61, 178 freedom riders have been arrested in Jackson since 5/24/61. Sixty-six have been released on bond, four have paid fines and one has been released to his attorney leaving a total of 107 remaining in custody.

On the afternoon of 7/5/61 a group of 12 Negro students from Campbell College, Jackson, Mississippi, congregated near the swimming pool reserved for white patrons at the Livingston Municipal Park, Jackson. Two of these individuals attempted to enter through the gate but were barred by the Jackson PD and the entire group was ordered to move on. Eight of these individuals complied and four refused as a result of which these four were arrested for breach of the peace. No incidents occurred in connection with the arrests and no trial date has been set.

It has been reported that the contemplated demonstration by the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) in Los Angeles, California, on 7/4/61 was called off because sufficient notification had not been given to CORE headquarters in New York City, the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) only maintains a suite in a large office building in Los Angeles, and since the Los Angeles downtown area is practically deserted on a holiday. In view of these considerations it was felt the demonstration would not have been effective.

Five freedom riders who were arrested Jackson, Mississippi, 7/2/61 convicted 7/3/61. Each was sentenced to serve four months and fined $200.

One hundred sixty-nine freedom riders arrested at Jackson since 5/24/61. Sixty-six released on bond, four released after paying fines, one released without charges and ninety-eight remain in custody.

James Leonard Farmer, National Director, Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), arrested Jackson 5/24/61 and released on bond 7/3/61. Upon release Farmer told press no freedom riders beaten at Mississippi State Penitentiary but were subjected to psychological cruelty. Also stated freedom rides will continue and will be expanded to new fields.

[redacted] CORE, New Orleans, stated recent slow down in freedom rides was caused by the time required to screen prospective freedom riders more thoroughly.

CORE demonstration at Los Angeles scheduled for 7/4/61 was canceled.

CORE picketed Masonic Temple building, New Orleans, 7/4/61. This building contains office of Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) as well as FBI and other Federal agencies. Picketing apparently directed against ICC.

Cross placed but not burned at entrance of Ford Park, Shreveport, Louisiana, 7/3/61. Cross bore lettering, "We are here -- KKK" and an attached note warned against integration of the park.

Negroes approached swimming pools at two state parks in Tennessee 7/4/61. Did not gain access to pools and no incidents occurred.

CP of Missouri has issued flyer supporting freedom rides and demanding Federal action against Alabama officials and an Executive Order to outlaw Jim Crow system.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

DETAILS

The five freedom riders who were arrested at Jackson, Mississippi, 7/2/61, were convicted of breach of the peace on 7/3/61. Each was sentenced to serve four months in jail and was fined $200.

One hundred sixty-nine freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson since 5/24/61. Sixty-six have been released on bond, four have been released upon the payment of fines and one has been released without the filing of charges. Ninety-eight remain in custody.

James Leonard Farmer, National Director, Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), who was arrested as a freedom rider at Jackson, Mississippi, 5/24/61 was released on bond 7/3/61. Upon his release Farmer held a news conference in which he stated that although none of the freedom riders were beaten at the Mississippi State Penitentiary, the freedom riders allegedly were subjected to psychological cruelty. He complained of ill-fitting clothes, lights being turned on all night, and the removal of mattresses as punishment for singing. Farmer stated that he was returning to New York City 7/4/61 and that the freedom rides will continue and will expand into new fields. He did not elaborate upon this point.

James McCain, Senior Field Representative, (CORE), New Orleans, was present at Farmer's press conference. He told the reporters that the recent slow down in freedom rides to Jackson was caused by the time required to screen prospective freedom riders more thoroughly.

It has previously been reported that U. S. District Judge Mize had informed attorneys for [redacted] that he was denying her petition for a writ of habeas corpus but that he was giving further consideration to whether the court should retain jurisdiction. Judge Mize has now entered an order denying the petition and has retained jurisdiction until state remedies have been exhausted. It is noted that [redacted] was arrested as a freedom rider at Jackson, Mississippi, 6/2/61. Attorneys for [redacted] have now filed a motion for a certificate of probable cause in order to appeal the action taken by Judge Mize. b6 b7C

It was previously reported that on 6/29/61 the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol issued a press release regarding a trip to Cuba by [redacted] where she allegedly attended a seminar conducted by nine officials of the Soviet Union. [redacted] was arrested as a freedom rider on 6/10/61 at Jackson. On 7/3/61 the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol issued a supplemental press release in which it was noted that news media throughout the country had shown great interest in the original release. It was stated that one point not made clear before was that the FBI had not supplied any information concerning the background of the freedom riders to the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol and that the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol had not stated that the FBI had under surveillance the "known communist" mentioned in the first press release.

Information has been received indicating that the Students for Integration Committee at the University of Minnesota has stated that another group of freedom riders may proceed to Nashville and then to Mississippi later this month.

[redacted] CORE, Jackson, Mississippi, advised that Reverend Martin Luther King will be the principal speaker at an organizational meeting of the Jackson Nonviolent Movement to be held at 8 PM, 7/6/61 at the Negro Masonic Temple in Jackson. Folk singer [redacted] will entertain at the meeting and [redacted] anticipates a large attendance. Local authorities have been advised.

Fifty-four people led by Julius W. Hobson, President, Washington, D. C. Chapter, CORE, gathered on the Mall in Washington at 11 AM, 7/4/61. The group consisted of 37 white people and 17 Negroes. At 11:30 AM they marched to Judiciary Square where speeches were given by Hobson, Reverend Perry Smith, Negro minister, Washington, D. C., David Dennis, Jerome Smith and Warren Moss. Dennis and Smith were arrested at Jackson, Mississippi, as freedom riders. Moss was introduced as chairman of the committee on employment. The group carried placards captioned:

"Racial Equality"
"Freedom of Speech"
"Freedom of Religion"
"Freedom of Ride."

It was previously indicated that CORE would demonstrate at Los Angeles, California, on 7/4/61. The demonstration was called off allegedly because the organization was unable to get demonstrators and also because the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) office in Los Angeles is the only Government agency in a private office building. It was felt by CORE that under the circumstances it would not be realized that they were picketing a Government office.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

CORE held a demonstration in New Orleans, 7/4/61, in which a group of 20 picketed the Masonic Temple building for about 35 minutes. Offices of the ICC, the FBI and other Federal agencies are in this building. The demonstrators carried placards which read,

"End discrimination in interstate travel"
"When will Jackson agree with the ICC"
"What does democracy mean in Jackson"
"July fourth, freedom for all Americans."

A cross was placed at the entrance of Ford Park, Shreveport, Louisiana, 7/3/61. It was not burned. The cross bore lettering, "We are here -- KKK" and a printed note attached to the cross warned city officials and Negroes that integration should not be allowed in Ford Park.

It was previously reported that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) planned demonstrations at parks in Tennessee on 7/4/61. Ten Negroes appeared at Cove Lake State Park, Jacksboro, Tennessee, 7/4/61 and attempted to use the swimming pool. The pool was closed by the management and there were no incidents.

Approximately twenty Negroes appeared at Big Ridge State Park, Union County, Tennessee, 7/4/61, and apparently intended to attempt to use the swimming pool. They were informed by the park superintendent that no law enforcement officers were present and that the park superintendent could not be responsible for any injuries that might be suffered in the event of violence. The Negroes then departed without incident.

The NAACP has reportedly been sponsoring demonstrations at Rainbow Beach in Chicago and plans additional demonstrations 7/8/61 and 7/16/61. Information has been received that NAACP anticipates that the CORE will participate in the demonstration on 7/16/61. Local authorities advised.

At a recent meeting of section organizers of the Southern California District Communist Party it was agreed that the freedom riders should be supported through financial contributions and physical participation where possible.

Communist Party (CP) members in St. Louis are currently distributing a flyer headed, "Support the Freedom Riders." This flyer which is inscribed, "Issued by the Communist Party of Missouri," demands the arrest and prosecution of Governor Patterson of Alabama and other state officials. It also demands prosecution of officers of the klan and white citizens councils and calls for the President to issue an Executive Order outlawing the Jim Crow system. It urges the reader to join in freedom rides.

[redacted] attempted to organize a rally for freedom riders at Philadelphia for 7/4/61. The rally was not held. These three individuals allegedly are members of the Youth Group, CP of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware. The rally allegedly was to be sponsored by NAACP which reportedly withdrew its support upon learning that the demonstration was being organized by a communist element.

The "California Eagle," a weekly Negro newspaper published in Los Angeles, dated June 29, 1961, page 3, carries an article concerning the group planning to leave Los Angeles from the Greyhound Bus Station July 12, 1961.

According to the article, only five people had signed up for the trip as of that time. Those listed were Bill Green, member of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), who is to be discharged from the Air Force July 7, 1961; Larry Bell, a student; Mrs. Roena Rand, CORE member; Bruce Cowser, student; and Mrs. Ora Myers, a teacher. FREEDOM RIDE 1961
RACIAL MATTERS; DESTRUCTION OF

One white male freedom rider, who gave a New York address, was arrested in Jackson, Mississippi, on July 8, 1961, when he refused to move from the Negro waiting room at the railroad station.

Nine freedom riders, several of whom gave Los Angeles addresses, were arrested at Jackson on July 9, 1961, upon their arrival from New Orleans by train. They failed to comply with police instructions that they move on.

Eight freedom riders who had gathered in Montgomery, Alabama, tested the facilities at the Trailways bus station in Montgomery on July 9, 1961, and then proceeded to Jackson where they were arrested the same day.

Eleven freedom riders, apparently local residents, were arrested on July 9, 1961, when they entered the white waiting room at the Trailways bus terminal in Jackson and failed to obey a request by the police that they move on.

Two hundred twenty-seven freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson since May 24, 1961. Eighty have been released on bond, four have been released upon the payment of fines and one has been released without the filing of charges. One hundred forty-two remain in custody.

My memorandum of June 27, 1961, set forth a letter from [redacted] Field Representative, Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), Jackson, Mississippi. The letter alleged that the practice of placing freedom riders in the maximum security unit at the Mississippi State Penitentiary constituted "unnaturally harsh punishment" and it was requested that the Department of Justice inquire into the conditions affecting the freedom riders who are confined in the penitentiary. On July 9, 1961, [redacted] advised that since the Department of Justice has not contacted him regarding his letter he contemplates telephoning [redacted] the Department.

We have been advised that a group of freedom riders from the University of Minnesota is expected to arrive in Nashville, Tennessee, on July 10, 1961. It was stated that New Orleans will probably be their final destination.

It has also been reported to us that a group of freedom riders plans to leave St. Louis by Trailways bus on July 10, 1961, enroute to New Orleans via Little Rock, Arkansas, and Shreveport, Louisiana.

A New York representative of CORE has allegedly been in touch with a Negro minister in Chattanooga, Tennessee, for the purpose of discussing a proposed freedom ride which will terminate in Chattanooga. It does not appear that any detailed plans have been made as yet.

DETAILS

Six male Negroes, all residents of Jackson, Mississippi, were arrested on 7/6/61 when they entered the white waiting room of the Illinois Central Railroad station at Jackson, Mississippi, and failed to move on, when ordered to do so by the Jackson Police Department (PD). All were charged with breach of the peace and are expected to be tried in Jackson Municipal Court today. No incidents occurred.

In the early morning of 7/7/61, six additional Negro males, all residents of Jackson, were arrested at the Greyhound bus terminal after they walked into the white waiting room from the street and approached the ticket counter. When ordered to move on by Jackson police officer they failed to comply as a result of which they have been charged with breach of the peace. No incidents occurred.

Since 5/24/61, 190 freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson, Mississippi, of which 66 have been released on bond, 4 have paid fines and one has been released to his attorney. One hundred nineteen remain in custody.

(C) On the evening of 7/6/61 a meeting billed as a "community mass rally" was held at the Negro Masonic Temple in Jackson, Mississippi. The crowd was estimated at about 1500 persons. The stated purpose of the meeting was as an ^{Miss.} organizational rally of the Jackson Nonviolent Movement (JNM). Walter Williams, a Jackson Negro college student and active National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) member, stated that nonviolent protests against segregation are to continue. Reverend Martin Luther King was the principal speaker and stated that local people should not let the freedom riders and passive resistance movements lapse for lack of participants. King stated the time has come for the President of the U. S. to enter a second Emancipation Proclamation decreeing all forms of segregation unconstitutional. He added Negroes must press the Federal Government for legislation to end lynching, payment of poll taxes and to make voting a reality to all people, and continuing of protests, including freedom rides, were needed to speed up action in the courts. King made no reference to any specific plans or actions to be taken and spoke in generalities. Approximately $750 to $1000 were collected. Five police officers were on duty at the meeting, no whites were observed in the area, and no incidents occurred.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

[redacted] Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), Jackson, has advised that he will head up the JNM assisted by [redacted] Negro male, Atlanta; [redacted] Negro male, Nashville; and James Luther Bevel, Negro male, Nashville. Bevel is a freedom rider arrested on 5/24/61 and presently out on bond.

Two officials representing Minnesota Governor Elmer L. Andersen proceeded to the Mississippi State Penitentiary at Parchman on 7/6/61 to inspect living conditions for five freedom riders from Minnesota. Mississippi Governor Ross Barnett called a meeting of high state officials to discuss "freedom riders and communism."

On 7/6/61 U. S. District Judge Sidney C. Mize, sitting in chambers at Gulfport, Mississippi, denied a motion for a certificate of probable cause filed by the attorneys for [redacted] a freedom rider from New York City. Judge Mize stated it would be improper for him to enter the case until it had been taken through the state courts. [redacted] one of the attorneys for [redacted] claimed that the state courts are behind segregation and "could not be expected to render a fair verdict."

The trial of [redacted] a member of the so-called professional group of freedom riders which originated at Washington, D. C., who was arrested at the bus station at Ocala, Florida, on 6/16/61, was commenced on 7/6/61 before Marion County, Florida, Judge Lewis O. Myers and a jury was selected. The trial is to continue today.

Eight freedom riders are to leave Los Angeles, California, today for New Orleans where they are to join another group destined for Jackson, Mississippi. Several of these individuals were originally scheduled to leave with a group of about twenty from Los Angeles on 7/12/61.

[redacted] a confidential informant of the San Francisco Office on [redacted] has advised that he has been seriously considering joining the freedom riders but did not bring this to the attention of the San Francisco Office until now when he has definitely made up his mind. The "San Francisco Examiner" of 7/6/61 indicated that [redacted] and two other individuals left San Francisco on

7/5/61 en route to Los Angeles where they were to join an additional group of riders departing Los Angeles on 7/12/61 for New Orleans and Jackson, Mississippi.

[] advised that this was in error and he is to leave San Francisco today for Los Angeles to join up with a group leaving on 7/9/61 for New Orleans. It was pointed out to [] that as a freedom rider he will probably be arrested and should he be uncovered as a Bureau informant it could be misconstrued as an FBI investigation of freedom riders and/or an FBI attitude favoring freedom rides.

[] stated that under no circumstances would he ever reveal his confidential relationship with the Bureau and he has been advised that any action on his part is of his own volition and the Bureau is not responsible for his activities. [] has been immediately discontinued as an informant and he has been so advised.

A group of six or seven freedom riders are reportedly scheduled to leave Montgomery, Alabama, for Jackson, Mississippi, today.

On 7/5/61 a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Henry Winston, who was convicted of violation of the Smith Act and who was recently pardoned by President Kennedy, held a press, radio and television interview at Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) headquarters in New York City. Winston was asked if the CP, USA takes any credit for the "freedom riders." Winston declined to answer saying he had been in jail and did not know the position of the CP, USA on this question. He added, however, that the CP, USA has always been in the fight for equality and would lend every possible support for those proceeding in the direction of equality.

Gus Hall, General Secretary, CP, USA interrupted at this point to comment "we" have not organized the freedom rides but "we" give them full support. Whenever such struggles take place "I" am sure you will find some communists in them.

The "Dallas Star Post," Dallas, Texas, for 7/1/61 contained an article indicating that Clarence A. Laws, Southwestern Regional Secretary of the NAACP, had been called to the national office of that organization in connection with press convention plans of the NAACP. The national convention is to meet in Philadelphia on 7/9-16/61. It was stated that one of the highlights of the national convention will be the "freedom train" which will take place on 7/12/61 at which time the entire delegation will go from Philadelphia to Washington, D. C., for a one-day lobby to make it crystal clear to Congress and the Administration that there must be action now on civil rights legislation.

A memorandum signed by the [redacted]
[redacted] Southern Christian Leadership Conference, a Negro integrationist organization, was sent to the Attorney General on the freedom rides. Copies of the memorandum were also reportedly furnished to the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) and the Civil Rights Division of the Justice Department. [redacted] stated that the purpose of the memorandum was "to provide a first-hand account of what a Negro passenger confronts in interstate travel."

SA [REDACTED] Jackson, Mississippi, Resident Agency, advised at 2:35 AM, 7/7/61 as follows:

A meeting billed as community mass rally held Negro Masonic Temple, Jackson, Mississippi, night of 7/6/61. Crowd estimated by Police Department (PD) at 1500. W. C. Shoemaker, Staff Reporter, "Jackson Daily News," covered meeting and furnished following information:

One purpose of meeting was stated as organizational rally of Jackson Nonviolent Movement (JNVM). ^{MIS}Walter Williams, Jackson Negro college student and active NAACP member, said purpose JNVM was to continue nonviolent protests against segregation. Reverend Martin Luther King was principal speaker. Spoke in generalities. Said local people should not let freedom riders and passive resistance movement lapse for lack of participants. Said time has come for President of U. S. to enter a second Emancipation Proclamation stating that all forms of segregation unconstitutional. Said Negroes must press Federal Government for legislation to end lynching, payment of poll taxes and to make voting a reality to all people. Said continuance of protests including freedom rides needed to speed up action of courts. Made no reference to any specific plans or courses of action to be taken.

Shoemaker estimated between $750 and $1000 collection taken. Five police officers on duty at meeting. No incidents. No whites observed in area.

^{MIS}[REDACTED] CORE, Jackson, has advised he will head up JNVM assisted by Charles Sherrod, Negro male, Atlanta; [REDACTED] Negro male, Nashville; and James Luther Bevil, Negro male, Nashville. Bevil is freedom rider arrested 5/24/61 and presently out on bond.

[REDACTED] also advised that six Negro males, all residents of Jackson, were arrested at the Greyhound bus terminal at 12:25 AM (CST), 7/7/61. They walked into white waiting room from street, approached ticket counter and when ordered to move on by Jackson police officer they failed to comply. They have been charged with breach of the peace and no incidents occurred.

FREEDOM RIDE 1961
RACIAL MATTERS; DESTRUCTION OF
AIRCRAFT OR MOTOR VEHICLES; CIVIL RIGHTS

Thirty-four freedom riders who were arrested in Jackson Mississippi, on the seventh, eighth and ninth of July, 1961, were convicted on July 10, 1961. Each was sentenced to serve four months in jail and was fined two hundred dollars. Three Negro freedom riders, each of whom is fifteen years of age and each of whom was arrested July 9, 1961, were not tried but will be handled in youth court at a later date.

b6

Two hundred twenty-seven freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson since May 24, 1961. Eighty have been released on bond. Four have been released upon the payment of fines and one has been released without the filing of charges. One hundred forty-two remain in custody.

In connection with the freedom ride scheduled to leave Los Angeles July 12, 1961, for Jackson, Mississippi, information has been received that sixteen individuals are firmly committed to make the trip and that eight others have made tentative commitments to participate.

One of those who reportedly will make the freedom ride from Los Angeles is [redacted] who has admitted that he was a member of the Communist Party in 1944 and 1945. In 1952 [redacted] denied having had any contact with the Communist Party since 1945.

At a recent meeting of Northwest Youth for Progressive Action in Seattle, Washington, [redacted] Communist Party, USA, reportedly stated that she wished to determine whether a freedom ride similar to the Los Angeles to Jackson ride could be organized in Seattle.

It has previously been reported that a suit is pending in U. S. District Court, Jackson, Mississippi, to which three Negroes seek to enjoin enforcement of segregation laws. A hearing in this matter which was scheduled for July 10, 1961, was postponed until August 7, 1961, due to the illness of a defense attorney.

NOTE: This is classified "Confidential" because exposure of informant could prejudice the defense interests of the U. S.

Five freedom riders left St. Louis by Trailways bus at 10:30 a.m., Central Daylight Time, on July 10, 1961. They planned to spend the night in Little Rock and to proceed to Shreveport, Louisiana, and New Orleans on July 11, 1961.

The St. Louis group arrived in Little Rock at 7:47 p.m., Central Standard Time, on July 10, 1961, and four of them entered the bus station. Approximately 250 people had gathered and the Little Rock Police Department felt that a disturbance might occur if the freedom riders did not leave. After they had been asked to leave twice and failed to comply, the four freedom riders were arrested for causing a public disturbance. They were held in lieu of five hundred dollars bond each and were scheduled to appear in Little Rock Municipal Court at 8:30 a.m., Central Standard Time, on July 11, 1961.

[redacted] the fifth freedom rider from St. Louis, did not enter the bus station at Little Rock and was released after being taken to the police station. She said that her job was to notify Little Rock attorney [redacted] in the event that the other four were arrested.

Representatives of Congress of Racial Equality expressed concern over the possibility of violence when the freedom riders from St. Louis reached Shreveport. Local authorities at Shreveport made detailed plans to handle the arrival of the freedom riders including escorting the bus from the Louisiana State line and assigning police and sheriff's deputies to the bus station. An informant advised that the Klan planned to have observers in the area of the bus station but did not intend to interfere as long as the situation was handled by the police.

A group of 350 Negroes who were attending a Baptist convention in Nassau are scheduled to return to Chicago in four Greyhound buses and are to stop at the Greyhound bus station at Ft. Pierce, Florida, on July 11, 1961. On their trip to Nassau they utilized the white cafeteria and rest room facilities at the Ft. Pierce bus station without incident.

Edward B. King, Jr., a leader in the freedom ride movement, has been quoted in the press as stating that he will lead a freedom walk from Baltimore, Maryland, to Washington, D. C. on July 16, 1961, in order to focus the attention of the President, Congress and Government leaders on the imprisonment of freedom riders at Jackson, Mississippi, and the continuing segregation of interstate facilities. Mr. King also reportedly stated that a sit-in is planned in the office of some Government agency in Washington. No date was mentioned for the sit-in and Mr. King allegedly declined to elaborate.

No freedom riders were arrested in Jackson, Mississippi, on July 11, 1961, and there was no change in the status of any of those who were arrested previously.

Two Negro males, sixteen and eighteen years of age, were arrested in Jackson on July 11, 1961, when they took seats at the lunch counter in a Walgreen drugstore and failed to comply with instructions of the police that they move on.

Trial of the four freedom riders who were arrested on July 10, 1961, was originally scheduled for July 11, 1961, but was postponed until July 12, 1961. The defendants were returned to jail in lieu of five hundred dollars bond each.

We have been advised in confidence that two deputy sheriffs from Shreveport, Louisiana, were in Little Rock on the night of July 10, 1961, to observe the arrival of the freedom riders and the manner in which the situation was handled by the Little Rock Police Department. The deputy sheriffs reportedly did not want their presence known even to the Little Rock police.

It has been reported in the press that a group of seven freedom riders, including three clergymen, will leave Newark on the night of July 12, 1961, for a trip to Chattanooga, Tennessee. It was stated that this trip is sponsored by thirteen New Jersey organizations including the state council of the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations, and the Americans for Democratic Action. A Committee for the Support of Freedom Riders plans to hold a public rally in Newark at 8:00 P. M., July 12, 1961, at which time James Farmer, National Director, Congress of Racial Equality, is scheduled to speak.

Freedom Riders - misc

Eight persons, four Negro males, three white males and one white female, were arrested at Trailways bus terminal, Jackson, Mississippi, when they arrived by bus from Montgomery, Alabama, on 7-7-61. The group walked into the white waiting room and were arrested for breach of the peace when they failed to move on after being ordered to do so by police.

Since 5-24-61, 198 freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson, Mississippi, of which 66 have been released on bond, four have paid fines and one has been released to his attorney. One hundred twenty-seven remain in custody.

A total of 20 freedom riders previously arrested in Jackson, Mississippi, on 7-5,6,7-61 but not including the above eight arrested persons, were tried in Municipal Court, Jackson, Mississippi, 7-7-61 for violation of Section 2087.5 of the Mississippi Code. All were convicted and sentenced to four months in jail and fined $200.

One Negro youth, aged 14, arrested with the group at the Greyhound terminal, Jackson, on 7-7-61, was not tried with the others but was turned over to Hinds County juvenile authorities.

A confidential informant of the Los Angeles Office has advised that the proposed demonstrations by CORE in connection with the speech of the Attorney General at the Beverly Hilton Hotel, Beverly Hills, California, scheduled for 7-8-61, have been canceled on instructions of James Farmer, National Chairman of CORE. Farmer reportedly had contacted the Attorney General's office and obtained favorable commitments indicating the Attorney General would impose injunctions in the near future to prevent further arrests of freedom riders in Mississippi. (See addendum)

A confidential informant of the Miami Office presently at Anniston, Alabama, has advised that Jesse B. Stoner arrived at Anniston, Alabama, 7-6-61 and is staying with Kenneth Adams, local Klan leader.

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont

According to the informant Stoner states he is representing the subjects in the burning of the Greyhound bus at Anniston, Alabama, and has received a fee from Adams. Stoner is one of the leaders of the National States Rights Party, an anti-Negro and anti-Semitic group, with headquarters in Birmingham, Alabama.

[redacted] a member of the so-called professional group of freedom riders who was arrested at the bus station at Ocala, Florida, on 6-16-61, was tried before Judge Lewis O. Myers, Marion County Court, Ocala, Florida, on 7-7-61 with a jury. The jury returned a guilty verdict on the charge of unlawful assembly. The sentencing of [redacted] another freedom rider previously convicted, has been deferred until 7-17-61 to allow time for the filing of a motion for a new trial if desired.

According to [redacted] CORE, New Orleans, a new group of 11 freedom riders, a majority of whom are from the West coast, is arriving in New Orleans on 7-8-61 by National Airlines, and will depart New Orleans for Jackson, Mississippi, probably on the morning of 7-9-61.

ACTION

A memorandum is ~~being prepared~~ ^{ATTACHED sent 7-8-61} for the Attorney General. WGA

ADDENDUM

Information concerning the proposed Los Angeles demonstrations by CORE had been obtained from a Los Angeles informant on the afternoon of 7-7-61. This information was orally furnished to Mr. Edwin O. Guthman, Director, Office of Public Information of the Department, by Mr. Evans on the afternoon of 7-7-61. Guthman commented that he would take action to get these demonstrations canceled. It is not known if these demonstrations were canceled due to action by Guthman. It is not known what commitments might have been made to CORE by Guthman.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on June 27, 1961, furnished information to the effect that a letter dated June 16, 1961, under the signature of Roy Wilkins, National Executive Secretary, NAACP, was addressed to Presidents of Branches, State Conferences and Youth Councils. This letter was captioned "Freedom Train to Washington" and stated that the 52nd Annual Convention of the NAACP will take a day off from the Convention and board a special "Freedom Train" to go to Washington, D.C. to make it crystal clear to Congress and the Administration that "there must be action now on Civil Rights legislation".

The letter states that arrangements were made with the Pennsylvania Railroad to run an NAACP special train from Philadelphia to Washington on Wednesday, July 12, 1961. The train will leave the 30th Street Station at 8:30 AM and will leave Washington for the return trip to Philadelphia at 9:00 PM. The round trip fare will be half price, $6.50 per person. The letter estimates that 1000 NAACP Convention delegates scheduled to meet in Philadelphia on July 10, 1961, will spend a day in Washington visiting their Senators and Representatives and joining in a concerted demand for action.

The letter instructs delegates to attend the Convention, prepared to ride the Freedom Train to Washington on July 12, 1961. Arrangements are to be made for appointments with participants' congressmen and for other details of the day's work.

Pages A4687-A4990. Congressman Muller, (D) New York, extended his remarks to include an article written by Helen Feller which appeared in the June 5, 1961, issue of the New Republic entitled "We, The People of Alabama." Mr. Muller stated "By the intelligent, courageous actions of responsible men like our Attorney General, working in conjunction with enlightened persons in all areas of our country, the turbulent situation in Alabama and other southern communities can be improved without evading the basic issue of equal rights for all persons." Miss Feller makes reference to the mob actions in Montgomery, Alabama, in connection with the "freedom riders." She stated "Not a single policeman was in sight when the bus drove in, although the FBI had notified the police department of the need for special protection." Miss Feller goes on to state "With this prospect in mind, the Attorney General's office is proceeding at full speed to prepare for future troubles by locating and surrounding them. The FBI is fanning out over the South trying to spot potential outbreaks before they can happen. And Kennedy men are trying hard to keep lines of communication open to the direct action civil rights groups."

On June 26, 27, and 28, 1961, [redacted]
[redacted] United States District Court, Northern District of Florida, Tallahassee, Florida, furnished the following information pertinent to captioned matter:

[redacted] explained that on the afternoon of June 23, 1961, [redacted]
picked up the mail for the court at the local post office, which included a large envelope bearing a postmark of June 23, 1961, Miami, Florida, and an almost illegible return address of [redacted] Attorney, Miami, Florida.
He said [redacted] did not open this package that date but left it for him to do so on the morning of June 26, 1961.

[redacted] explained further that in opening instant package he determined its contents as a suit for an order opening the Tallahassee Municipal Airport restaurant to all races. [redacted] states he determined the suit consisting of a complaint with an accompanying affidavit was mailed in by Attorney Constance B. Motley of New York City and Attorney [redacted] of Miami, Florida, on behalf of the of Tallahassee and the [redacted] of Miami, Florida, all protestant Negro ministers. [redacted] further identified both Motley [redacted] as attorneys for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

According to [redacted] named as defendants in instant suit are the City of Tallahassee, each of the four city commissioners and the American News Company, Inc., which operates the Savarin Restaurant concession at the Continuing, [] explained that in the suit the three ministers request the court to enter interlocutory and permanent injunctions so that there will not be any distinction based on color in regard to service at Tallahassee Municipal Airport or the restaurant operated in connection therewith. The plaintiffs ask that the defendants, their successors, agents, servants and employees be enjoined from annoying, arresting and harassing the three ministers and the class they represent because of their insistence that they be served in the airport's Savarin Restaurant.

[] stated further that in the suit, [] say that as ordained ministers, they must travel extensively throughout the state and frequently land at the local airport. Their court petition states that on June 1, 1961, they went together to the restaurant and requested to be served as diners and were thereafter told by employees at the restaurant they could not obtain service of food in the restaurant because they were Negroes and that there was no other reason for non-service. The three ministers charged the restaurant policy is a scheme to unlawfully enforce racial segregation.

Continuing [] advised that on June 27, 1961, Federal District Judge G. Harrold Carswell set a preliminary hearing on the above suit to force integration of the restaurant at the Tallahassee airport for July 18, 1961, at 11:00 a.m.

On June 26, and 28, 1961, Military Intelligence (CIC) representative [] Tallahassee, Florida, was furnished the above information.

New Orleans Office has advised that Mississippi Highway Patrol plans to make a press release indicating that one of the freedom riders, [redacted] had traveled to Cuba with a group of students in February, 1961, and that the group had attended a seminar conducted by nine officials of the Soviet Union. LA

The police press release reflects [redacted] admitted being in a group of students who went to Cuba reportedly in February, 1961, to hear a lecture by Castro and his officials as to their intentions and Cuba's intentions of friendliness with respect to this country and other nations. The press release indicates that this was only a guise but it was actually a seminar conducted by nine officials of the Soviet Union. [redacted] reportedly has admitted that the group had been addressed by officials of Soviet Russia and Castro and that she had personally met Castro. [redacted] refused to answer what was discussed in Cuba or to identify anyone in the group.

When asked if she had talked with one "John Doe, a known Communist," she refused to answer on the grounds "the FBI might intimidate him!!!"

New Orleans Office has advised that the individual referred to as John Doe in the press statement is reported to be one [redacted] New York, reported to be member of the Communist Party and who, according to an investigator for the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol, was one of the instructors at the school in Cuba and was later arrested in Florida with a quantity of Communist literature in his car. (separate memo being submitted)

New Orleans Office has also advised that in addition to the prepared release, the State Patrol will verbally advise the press that the seminar reportedly conducted in Cuba by officials of the Soviet Union dealt with instructions on "how to sit in, wade in and freedom rides." The investigator was asked source of such information, the fact that Soviet Union representatives had furnished such instructions, and the investigator merely replied, "Oh, we just know that."

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

Bureau files reflect that [redacted] was among members of the Chicago Chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) who traveled to Cuba on 12/23/60 for a holiday tour. At a meeting of the University of Chicago's FPCC on [redacted] discussed conditions in Cuba and stated she had talked with Fidel Castro for approximately one and one-half hours. Bureau files disclosed that [redacted] is of extremely doubtful reliability and reported to be prone to making exaggerated statements. On one occasion she told friends that she had been contacted on several occasions by the FBI with regard to the U-2 incident. This, of course, is without foundation.

In view of the possibility that [redacted] might have pertinent and admissible information concerning Cuban Government subsidization of FPCC, the Chicago Office was instructed to interview her after appropriate investigation. [redacted] was finally contacted on 4/27/61 at a Chicago residence where she was living [redacted]. She curtly stated she had nothing to say to the FBI and refused to be interviewed unless questions were put in writing and she had the advice of an attorney.

[redacted] reportedly has admitted to the State Police that she had been arrested in Chicago 100 to 150 times for picketing and also arrested in New York and San Francisco for picketing. Identification Division files reflect a record only of her arrest at Jackson, Mississippi, on 6/10/61.

"FREEDOM TRAIN"

The DALLAS STAR POST, Dallas, Texas, July 1, 1961, contained an article entitled "NAACP REGIONAL SECRETARY OFF TO NEW YORK," which stated that CLARENCE A. LAWS, Southwest regional secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, had been called to the national office of that organization. It stated that while in New York he will assist with pre-convention plans. The national convention is to meet in Philadelphia on July 9-16. FA
D 12

This news article stated one of the highlights of the national convention will be the "FREEDOM TRAIN," which will take place on July 12. On that date the entire delegation at the convention, consisting of more than 1,000 will go from Philadelphia to Washington, D.C., for a one day lobby to make it crystal clear to Congress and the administration that there must be action now on civil rights legislation.

The Congress of Racial Equality, (CORE), with headquarters in New York City, was in 1953 the subject of a security investigation. The stated aim of the organization is that of nonviolent direct action by interracial groups to end racial segregation and discrimination. Informants reported no evidence of communist infiltration or activity in the organization at the time. The Baltimore Office in 1958 conducted an investigation concerning the communist infiltration of a local branch of this organization; however, no information was developed that the Communist Party was attempting to infiltrate the organization. Dear Mr. Hoover, Sir, I have intended to write you for a long time. Recently I attended the 14th Session of the ALA Mississippi Girls' State. There I heard many instructive talks on communism. Among the speakers were Dr. W. D. McBain, President of Mississippi Southern University, Judge Tom P. Brady, and several ex-FB.I. agents.

At forums held after the films, "Communism on the Map" and "Operation Abolition", the question, "How can you recognize communists and communists propaganda?" was often asked and answered. Among other signs were to consistently following and fostering the current "party line" and breaking down the functions of government.

Referring to the last purpose, I thought about the "Freedom Riders". It seems that they come to Jackson with the express purpose of being arrested, and when arrested, refuse to pay bail and take their case to court. Or, if to a court, they entirely skip the Mississippi Courts and go to a Federal one. They protest against a law, Breach of the Peace, that is on the books of nearly every other state. This law is for the express purpose of stopping or preventing riots and applies to all explosive conditions. These apparent reasons added to the facts that our Mississippi State Patrol charged that at least two Freedom Riders attended lectures on communism and sit ins, stand ins, and freedom rides by Castro and other communists in Cuba left me strong doubts as to whether these rides were attempts to end segregation or attempts "to stir up friction and bad feeling that inevitably resulted in violence-- D. Lawrence." Any opinion I or my friends might have is probably colored by our Southern sectionalism, but you have had so much experience with communists and in gov. that I'd much rather

Is CORE communist infiltrated or directed? Is "Breach of the Peace" an unconstitutional law? Are Mississippi courts and judges qualified to try desegregation cases? Is there a tie in between Freedom Riders and Castro? Did you know over 200 (Americans?) attended lectures by communists in Cuba?

These are several questions, I'd like to know the answers to. If you have time, I'd rather hear them from you. Thank you for reading this.

FREEDOM RIDE 1961
RACIAL MATTERS; DESTRUCTION OF
AIRCRAFT OR MOTOR VEHICLES; CIVIL RIGHTS

[redacted] who was arrested as a freedom rider at Jackson, Mississippi, on June 2, 1961, has previously petitioned the United States District Court in Jackson for a writ of habeas corpus. The court denied the petition and also denied an application for a certificate of probable cause upon which an appeal might have been based. A certificate of probable cause was issued on July 12, 1961, by Judge John Minor Wisdom of the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Thirteen freedom riders left Los Angeles, California, by bus on July 12, 1961. They are to arrive in New Orleans, Louisiana, at 3:20 p.m., Central Standard Time, July 14, 1961, and will proceed to Jackson from New Orleans.

The Los Angeles group includes [redacted] attorneys who have a past record of Communist Party activity. [redacted] is also known as [redacted] [redacted] a member of the Los Angeles group, may be identical with one [redacted] who has recently become active in Communist Party front youth group activities in Los Angeles.

The four freedom riders who were arrested at Little Rock, Arkansas, on July 10, 1961, were sentenced on July 12, 1961. Each was fined $500 and ordered to serve six months. All sentences were suspended on the condition that the defendants discontinue the freedom ride and return to their homes. The defendants were freed on this basis but on the evening of July 12, 1961, they surrendered to the Little Rock Police Department and were placed in jail to be returned to court on July 13, 1961.

The Attorney General

We have been advised in confidence that after the national wire services reported that the freedom riders would return home from Little Rock, officials of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) instructed that they should remain in Little Rock because their return home would defeat the purpose of CORE.

The freedom ride which was scheduled to leave Newark on July 12, 1961, for Chattanooga, Tennessee, is now scheduled to leave from New York by bus on July 13, 1961. There reportedly will be four or five in the group and reservations have been made at the Thomas Jefferson Inn, Charlottesville, Virginia, for the night of July 13, 1961. The inn does not know that the group is integrated and the freedom riders anticipate that some difficulty may be encountered in this regard.

On July 14, 1961, the above group intends to proceed from Charlottesville to Chattanooga by bus, arriving in the evening of the same day. Between Roanoke, Virginia, and Chattanooga they plan to test the facilities at rest stops. It has been reported that they will ignore any request of a rest stop proprietor that facilities be used on a segregated basis but they will obey any such instructions that may be given by police.

The lunch counter and rest room at the bus terminal are to be tested in Chattanooga. Local members of CORE allegedly will join the freedom riders if police interfere with them at Chattanooga, otherwise they will all attend a public rally. It has been stated that if arrests are made the freedom riders plan to stay in jail for one or two months.

A CORE representative at Chattanooga is reportedly making efforts to have the bus station desegregated prior to the arrival of the freedom ride.

Seventeen members of the American Nazi Party (ANP) and five members of Fighting American Nationalists (FAN) were picketing at Union Station, Washington, D. C., when the freedom train of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People arrived from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on July 12, 1961. The FAN was organized under the guidance of George Lincoln Rockwell, leader of ANP; however, the two organizations are not formally connected.

With regard to the proposed freedom walk from Baltimore to Washington, D. C., on July 16, 1961, it has now been indicated that this is in connection with an annual board meeting of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) which will be held in Baltimore from July 14 to July 16, 1961. It has been announced that Martin Luther King, National Advisor of the SNCC, and James Farmer, National Director of CORE, will speak at the meeting in Baltimore. One hundred students allegedly plan to make the freedom walk to dramatize injustice in the South.

The Department will be informed of future developments on a current basis.

[redacted] Los Angeles County Communist Party, as of September 1945 and had attended meetings of this club in July, August and September 1945. The Communist Party (CP) and the CPA have Order 10450.

The August 16, 1944, issue of the "Daily People's article stating that a DPW party would be held at 1222 North Commonwealth Avenue, Los Angeles.

The August 27, 1944, issue of the DPW contained an article listing George Graddock as a prize winner in the East Hollywood area for obtaining renewal subscriptions to the DPW.

[redacted]
[redacted] was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI on March 29, 1952, at which time he readily admitted his membership in the CPA and CP in 1944-45. He stated that he joined the CPA and CP because of racial discrimination but that he quit the CP sometime in 1945 when he realized the CP was using Negroes to advance communism and was not really helping Negroes. [redacted] stated that since that time he has had nothing to do with the CP.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION

OF

ELIZABETH PORTER WYCKOFF

FOR A WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

OPINION OF THE COURT

This matter is before the Court upon a petition of Elizabeth Porter Wyckoff for a writ of habeas corpus and upon the answer J. A. Gilfoy, as Sheriff of Hinds County, Mississippi. The petition for a writ of habeas corpus was filed with the Court and the Court issued a show cause order to the Sheriff of Hinds County why the writ should not issue and he responded thereto and the matter came on for hearing.

The petitioner alleged that she was a citizen of the United States, a resident of the state of New York, and she alleged that she is now imprisoned and restrained of her liberty in the Hinds County Jail in the State of Mississippi in the custody of J. A. Gilfoy, Sheriff of Hinds County, Mississippi. She alleged that the cause of such imprisonment is not known to her, but that she is held as a county prisoner under the exclusive jurisdiction or custody of said Sheriff pursuant to a judgment of the Municipal Court of the City of Jackson, Hinds County, and that she was convicted of violating Sec. 2087.5 of the Mississippi Code of 1942 as amended, and by virtue of that conviction was committed to imprisonment in the Hinds County Jail for a period of four months and fined $200.00. She further alleged that the judgment, sentence and commitment were void and without authority of law, and that her imprisonment was a denial of due process of law under the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, and also in violation of the First and Fifteenth Amend^{ments} to the Constitution of the United States; that the Court rendering the judgment of conviction was without jurisdiction.

The Respondent, Gilfoy, answered the petition and set up as a defense thereof that he held the custody of the Petitioner by virtue of a judgment of conviction of breach of the peace in Hinds County, Mississippi and the commitment issued by the Ex Officio Justice of the Peace of that District, and denied all the other material allegations of the petition.

The Petitioner, who is a white woman, was convicted of a violation of Section 2087.5 of the Code of 1942 and the amendments thereto, after a fair trial in the Ex Officio Justice of the Peace Court of James L. Spencer. The Sheriff further set up as affirmative matter a certificate of the Ex Officio Justice of the Peace wherein he certified that the Petitioner was represented in his court by four attorneys of her own choice and that the Petitioner, along with counsel for the State, announced ready for trial. She was tried by the Court upon evidence and, after argument, was convicted by the Ex Officio Justice of the Peace, and Respondent also set up as a defense that the Petitioner had not exhausted her state remedies which were available to her and that there was no emergency existing in her behalf to justify the disregarding of the plain mandate of the Act of Congress, being Section 2254, Title 28, USC.

Counsel for Petitioner urges that if the writ should be denied, the Court should retain jurisdiction until she has had an opportunity to avail herself of the remedies afforded by the laws of the State of Mississippi.

The Court has considered the oral argument of the attorneys and their very able briefs filed in this case, and is of the opinion that the writ should be denied. In granting the writ the Court would be compelled to disregard and ignore the plain language of Section 2254 of Title 28 of the United States Code, which provides that a Federal Court shall not grant a writ of habeas corpus to one who is held under a commitment of the State Court unless the Petitioner has exhausted the state remedies. The Petitioner admits in her petition that she has not exhausted them, but urges the Court that the present petition is an emergency and that the Act of Congress should be disregarded by the Court. With this contention I cannot agree. There is no emergency to justify a disregard of the Act of Congress. Petitioner alleges that she is unable to pay the cost of exhausting her remedies. In Mississippi this is not an excuse or justification. The statutes of Mississippi provide that any person who is unable to pay the cost or give bond therefor may file a pauper's oath and the appeal will be perfected immediately without cost. Section 1203, Mississippi Code of 1942.

The Court which convicted the Petitioner is a State Court known as an Ex Officio Justice of the Peace. The law of Mississippi provides that the Police Justice of a city of over 10,000 shall also be Ex Officio Justice of the Peace, authorized to try all misdemeanors committed within the limits of the municipality. See Section 3574-103, Mississippi Code of 1942 and amendments thereto. The Petitioner was convicted June 5, 1961. Under Sections 1175, 1202 and 1203 of the Code of 1942 as recompiled, she had the right of appeal immediately to the County Court, where she would be entitled to a trial de novo by a jury, if she desired one, and if convicted there would then be entitled to an immediate appeal to the Circuit Court, where the case would be tried on the record, and if affirmed there she would be entitled to an appeal to the Supreme Court of the State. These remedies are speedy and exhaustive, and even go further than in many states. The statutes give the trial court the right to release one without bond pending appeal, upon proper petition and showing that one is unable to give bond. Petitioner further contends that she was denied due process of law because she did not have a jury trial. This contention is without merit. When one is tried in a Justice of the Peace Court, as was petitioner, he is entitled to trial by jury if he requests it, but the record shows that Petitioner went to trial represented by able counsel without calling for a jury.

Petitioner contends through her counsel that this is an effort to prevent integration and to enforce segregation. This contention is without merit. Petitioner was not convicted of a violation of any law with reference to integration or segregation, but was convicted of a breach of the peace in refusing to disperse and move on under the direction of a lawful officer. The section of the Code above referred to provides that it is a misdemeanor to congregat with other persons or crowds with the intent to provoke a breach of the peace and to refuse to disperse or move on upon the order of a lawful officer. This statute, or one similar thereto, is common to many states in the Union and is a very wise exercise of police powers of the state. Petitioner's own state, New York, has a very similar statute and with the same purpose as is the Mississippi statute. See Section 702, New York Penal Law.

It is not necessary in the present hearing to determine the constitutionality of this statute or similar statutes throughout the nation for the reason that Congress has specifically forbidden the Federal Courts to grant a writ of habeas corpus unless a petitioner has exhausted all state remedies. That section of the Act of Congress reads as follows: "An applicant shall not have been deemed to have exhausted the remedies available in the courts of the State within the meaning of this section, if he has the right under the law of the State to raise, by any available procedure, the question presented." The Federal Courts, ^{as well as Congress} are reluctant to interfere with the enforcement of the criminal statutes of a state, but leave that function to appropriate action of each state. The wisdom of this statute is exemplified by oral argument of counsel for petitioner when he refers to the bloodshed that occurred in Montgomery. No such occurrences happened in Mississippi, but had it not been for the orderly enforcement by the officers of the State of Mississippi under the provisions of this statute, such occurrences could have happened. ~~By virtue of the power of this statute the officers are authorized to require assemblies which are likely to provoke a breach of the peace to move on, and if one refuses so to do, he may be arrested for violation of the statute.~~ By virtue of the power of this statute the officers are authorized to require assemblies which are likely to provoke a breach of the peace to move on, and if one refuses so to do, he may be arrested for violation of the statute.

Counsel for petitioner, upon his request for the Court to retain jurisdiction even though the writ is denied, cites the case of Duffy v. Wells, 201 Fed. (2) 503. Under this authority I agree that this case is an appropriate one for the Court to retain jurisdiction, but deny the writ. As heretofore stated, the Federal Courts are very reluctant indeed to interfere with the ordinary process of a State Court involving state matters. See Davis v. Burke, 179 U. S. 399; As Forte Hawk, 381 U. S. 114; Stack v. Boyle, 342 U. S. 1; Brown v. Allen, 344 U. S. 443.

The petition now before the Court for a writ of habeas corpus was heard upon the record without any evidence being introduced by either side. When the case was called by the Court counsel for petitioner and counsel for the defendant were asked if either side desired to introduce any evidence and each answered that they did not. As heretofore stated, the law is that when a petition for habeas corpus is answered and the allegations of the petition are denied, the burden is upon the petitioner to prove the allegations of the petition and her right thereunder.

As argued by counsel for petitioner, the decision in this case will probably be far-reaching and one of importance. However, the question really is not a new one. It many times has been passed upon by the Courts. A review of the authorities will be appropriate as well as instructive, and I shall therefore discuss some aspects of habeas corpus as they relate to the always delicate question of the relationship between the states and the Federal Government under our dual sovereignty.

It is generally known that the section with which we are now dealing (28 U.S.C.A. Sec. 2254), and the entire Chapter 153 of which it is a part, came into our law under the 1948 recodification of the Judicial Code. The chapter was based to a considerable extent upon studies made by the Judicial Conference of Senior Circuit Judges through its committee on habeas corpus, of which Judge John J. Parker was Chairman. The Supreme Court quoted a portion of the report of that committee in its decision of Darr v. Burford, 1950, 339 U. S. 200,

The chapter on Habeas Corpus is, therefore, an expression of the attitude of Congress on a subject which, both before and after its passage, was the subject of constant solicitude of the Supreme Court in dealing with Federal-State relationships.

The Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals has in a recent case collected and commented on some of these cases, and I quote a portion of its decision in Empire Pictures Distributing Co. v. City of Fort Worth, 273 F. 2d 529, 535, et seq. (The notes, as numbered in the text of that decision, are shown in parentheses):

"Before leaving the discussion of the holdings of the five recent decisions it is desirable to point out that, in 1955, ⁽¹³⁾ (Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America v. Richman Bros. Co., 348 U. S. 511, 75 S. Ct. 452, 99 L. Ed. 600) the Supreme Court had emphasized the importance of the change in language which the enactment of Title 28 U. S. Code in 1948 brought about. The statute which had theretofore been Sec. 265 of the Judicial Code was revised in the 1948 enactment so as to read: ⁽¹⁴⁾ (28 U.S.C.A. Sec. 2283.)

"A court of the United States may not grant an injunction to stay proceedings in a State court except as expressly authorized by Act of Congress, or where necessary in aid of its jurisdiction, or to protect or effectuate its judgments."

"Richman had brought a proceeding in a State court of Missouri to enjoin picketing by Amalgamated, alleging that it was being conducted in furtherance of a common-law conspiracy. Asserting that the field had been occupied by the Taft-Hartley Act, 29 U.S.C.A. Sec. 141 et seq. so that only the District Court of the United States had jurisdiction. ⁽¹⁵⁾ (28 U.S.C.A. Sec. 1337 and cf. Weber v. Anheuser-Busch, Inc. 1955, 348 U.S. 468, 75 S. Ct. 480, 99 L. Ed. 546.) Amalgamated filed action in the federal court to restrain the prosecution of the State court proceeding. The District Court dismissed, the Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit affirmed, ⁽¹⁶⁾ (211 F. 2d 449.) and the Supreme Court approved their actions, holding that the quoted statute constituted 'Legislative policy * * * in a clear-cut prohibition qualified only by specifically defined exceptions.' (348 U.S. 511, 75 S. Ct. 455.) Responding to the argument that to permit State courts to entertain jurisdiction which had so manifestly been vested in the federal courts under Taft-Hartley would bring about a situation where 'delay will not only undercut the legislative scheme, but opportunity for effective union activity may be diminished if not lost,' the Supreme Court said (348 U.S. at pages 518-519, 75 S. Ct. at page 456):

"The assumption upon which the argument proceeds is that federal rights will not be adequately protected in the state courts, and the "gap" complained of is impatience with the appellate process if state courts go wrong. But during more than half of our history Congress, in establishing the jurisdiction of the lower federal courts, in the main relied on the adequacy of the state judicial systems to enforce federal rights, subject to review by this Court. With limited exceptions, it was not until 1875 that the lower federal courts were given general jurisdiction over federal questions. During that entire period the vindication of federal rights depended upon the procedure which petitioner attacks as so grossly inadequate that it could not have been contemplated by Congress. The prohibition of Sec. 2263 is but continuing evidence of confidence in the state courts, reinforced by a desire to avoid direct conflicts between the state and federal courts. * * *

"Finally, it is clear that the federal courts should defer to state courts, because of the long settled principle that a federal court will intervene in a state's enforcement of its criminal laws only in extreme cases. One or two Supreme Court decisions will suffice to show that the principle is deep-rooted in our jurisprudence.

"The two ordinances under attack here create misdemeanors only, punishable by maximum fines of $200.00 for each day's violation. The basic thrust of the Complaint is to procure a federal holding in appellants' favor to escape being subjected to being fined for showing the picture without first obtaining a permit. The action of the Supreme Court in Douglas v. City of Jeannette, 1943, 319 U. S. 157, 3. Ct. 877, 87 L. Ed. 1324, illustrates that such a course may not be followed.

"Jeannette had an ordinance requiring those who solicited within its borders to procure a license before beginning such solicitation. A group of Jehovah's witnesses refused to observe the requirements of the ordinance, being convinced that it was inconsistent with the teachings of their religion. When the city officials asked that they refrain from approaching the residents of the city, they decided upon a mass infiltration and brought one hundred Witnesses into the city to solicit in defiance of the ordinance. It was necessary to call out the fire department to supplement the efforts of the small police force. A score of the witnesses were arrested and some were convicted, and their cases were affirmed by the state appellate court. ⁽²⁰⁾ (Commonwealth v. Murdock, 149 Pa. Super. 175, 27 A.2d 666.) Taking the case upon certiorari, the Supreme Court of the United States reversed the convictions, ⁽²¹⁾ (Murdock v. Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, 1943, 319 U.S. 105, 63 S. Ct. 870, 87 L. Ed. 1292.) holding the ordinance unconstitutional.

"Following these convictions some of the Witnesses brought proceedings in the United States District Court to restrain the enforcement of the ordinance, which resulted in the entry of orders enjoining its enforcement." ⁽²²⁾ (Douglas v. City of Jeannette, D.C. W.D. Pa., 1941, 39 F. Supp. 52, and cf. Reid v. Borough of Brockville, Pa. D.C.W.D. Pa. 1941, 39 F. Supp. 50.) The Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit reversed, ⁽²³⁾ (1942, 130 F. 2d 652.) The Supreme Court granted certiorari ⁽²⁴⁾ (318 U.S. 749, 63 S. Ct. 660, 87 L. Ed. 1125.) and upon hearing affirmed the action of the Court of Appeals ⁽²⁵⁾ (Douglas v. City of Jeannette, 1943, 319 U.S. 157, 63 S. Ct. 877, ⁸⁸² 87 L. Ed. 1324.) stating, 'we find no ground for supposing that the intervention of a federal court, in order to secure petitioners' constitutional rights, will be either necessary or appropriate.' Here is some of the language of the opinion: ⁽²⁶⁾ (319 U. S. at pages 163-164, 63 S. Ct. at page 880.)

"The power reserved to the states under the Constitution to provide for the determination of controversies in their courts may be restricted by federal district courts only in obedience to Congressional legislation in conformity to the Judiciary Article of the Constitution. Congress, by its legislation, has adopted the policy, with certain well defined statutory exceptions, of leaving generally to the state courts the trial of criminal cases arising under state laws, subject to review by this Court of any federal questions involved. * * *

"* * * No person is immune from prosecution in good faith for his alleged criminal acts. Its immunity, even though alleged to be in violation of constitutional guarantees, is not a ground for equity relief since the lawfulness or constitutionality of the statute or ordinance on which the prosecution is based may be determined as readily in the criminal case as in a suit for injunction. * * *

Where the threatened prosecution is by state officers for alleged violations of a state law, the state courts are the final arbiters of its meaning and application, subject only to review by this Court on federal grounds appropriately asserted. Hence the arrest by the federal courts of the processes of the criminal law within the states, and the determination of questions of criminal liability under state law by a federal court of equity, are to be supported only on a showing of danger of irreparable injury 'both great and immediate'. * * *

"* * * It does not appear from the record that petitioners have been threatened with any injury other than that incidental to every criminal proceeding brought lawfully and in good faith, or that a federal court of equity by withdrawing the determination of guilt from the state courts could rightly afford petitioners any protection which they could not secure by prompt trial and appeal pursued to this Court."

"The principles enunciated in Jeannette have had wide application. One case is worthy of note where the right sought to be safeguarded in the federal court arose, as did that in Jeannette, under a Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C.A. Secs. 1981-1983. (27) (Stefanelli v. Minard, 1951, 342 U.S. 117, 72 S. Ct. 118, 96 L. ed. 138.) Stefanelli, et al sought federal relief by injunction from threatened use in a state criminal prosecution of evidence admittedly obtained in violation of the Fourth Amendment. Both the District Court and the Court of Appeals declined to intervene, dismissing the complaints. The Supreme Court affirmed, using this language: (28) (342 U. S. at pages 120-123, 72 S. Ct. at page 120.)

"* * * The maxim that equity will not enjoin a criminal prosecution summarizes centuries of weighty experience in Anglo-American law. It is impressively reinforced when not merely the relations between coordinate courts but between coordinate political authorities are in issue. The special delicacy of the adjustment to be preserved between federal equitable power and State administration of its own law, has been an historic concern of congressional enactment, see, e.g., 28 U.S.C. Secs. 1341, 1342, 2283, 2284(5), 28 U.S.C.A. Secs. 1341, 1342, 2283, 2284(5). This concern has been reflected in decisions of this Court, not governed by explicit congressional requirement, bearing on a state's enforcement of its criminal law. (Citing several cases.) It has received striking confirmation even where an important countervailing federal interest was involved. * * *

"These considerations have informed our construction of the Civil Rights Act. * * * Regardless of differences in particular cases, however, the Court's lodestar of adjudication has been that the statute should be construed so as to respect the proper balance between the states and the federal government in law enforcement." * * *

"If these considerations limit federal courts in restraining state prosecutions merely threatened, how much more cogent are they to prevent federal interference with proceedings once begun. * * *

"The consequences of exercising the equitable power here invoked are not the concern of a merely doctrinaire alertness to protect the proper sphere of the states in enforcing their criminal law. If we were to sanction this intervention, we would expose every state criminal prosecution to insupportable disruption. Every question of procedural due process of law -- with its far-flung and undefined range -- would invite a flinching movement against the system of state courts by resort to the federal forum, with review if need be to this Court, to determine the issue. * * *

"* * * A proper respect for those relations requires that the judgment below be affirmed."

To these decisions quoted from by the Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit I would add Spencer v. Hughes, 1943, 321 U.S. 1, and Shaw v. Texas, 394 U.S. 199, while acknowledging always that the exhaustive opinion of Mr. Chief Justice Stone in the Jeannette case remains the landmark upon which the other cases are chiefly based.

I am not unmindful of the fact that the Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit in Morrison, et al v. Davis, et al, 1956, 252 F. 2d 102, certiorari denied 70 U.S. Ct. 1003, expressed the idea that Jeannette had been modified. The later case of Empire Pictures supra expressed no doubt about the binding force of Jeannette. Also it is worthy of note that the only appellate court referring to Morrison v. Davis does so with disapproval, Hughes v. United Steelworkers of America, 1954, 253 F. 2d 594. Moreover, in the instant case now before the court the petitioner is being prosecuted, which was not the case in Morrison supra.

The treatment given Jeannette by the supreme court in the last few years, in my opinion, destroys all doubt concerning the continued authority of Jennette.

I find that the Supreme Court has cited Jennette three times since Morrison v. Lewis, and has affirmed in a per curiam opinion a decision of the Court of Appeals of the Second Circuit which cited Jennette twice.

In Reiser v. Randall, 357 U.S. 513, Jennette was cited in a concurring opinion by Mr. Justice Black in support of a different point from that under consideration. Jennette was also cited in support of another point by the majority opinion in Moore v. Pape, 1961, 365 U.S. 167, 171, and by the dissenting opinion of Mr. Justice Frankfurter, ib. at page 206.

None of the language of the Court in its opinion in Moore v. Pape makes a short discussion of that case desirable. At page 163 of 365 U.S. this statement is made: "It is no answer that the state has a law which if enforced would give relief. The federal remedy is supplementary to the state remedy, and the latter need not be first sought and refused before the federal one is invoked. Hence the fact that Illinois by its constitution and laws outlaws searches and seizures is no barrier to the present suit in the federal court."

It has long been recognized that where a plaintiff is vouchsafed rights in a federal forum or in a state forum, he has the right to choose which forum he will select for the vindication of his rights. Cf. a case which went up from this Court, Wichman, et al. v. Hannalia Textiles, Inc., 5 Cir., 1949, 175 F. 2d 977; same case in State Court of Mississippi, Hannalia Textiles, Inc. v. Gillie, et al., 5. Ct. Miss., 41 So. 2d 6. But the quoted holding is not contrary in any way with the principles of Jennette and of Staffinelli. In each of these cases the effort was to induce the federal court to intervene in state court action before that action had been brought to a conclusion. As long as Jennette and Staffinelli stand such a course may not be followed.

That Jennette and Staffinelli do still stand is clearly demonstrated in two decisions rendered by the Supreme Court a week after Moore v. Pape. Wilson v. Schmeltzer, et al., Feb. 27, 1961, 365 U.S. 331. Schmeltzer, et al were federal narcotic agents who had arrested Wilson under circumstances which made them apprehensive that the evidence seized by them incident to the arrest would not be usable in a federal prosecution. They delivered Wilson, therefore, to the authorities of Cook County, Illinois, where Wilson was indicted. After the state court had denied Wilson's motion for suppression of the evidence he brought action in the United States District Court to enjoin the use of the evidence and the federal officers from testifying at the original trial in the state court. The District Court granted the motion to dismiss the action and on appeal the Court of the Seventh Circuit affirmed, 275 F. 2d 932. The Court of Appeals cited Jeannette as authority for this statement: "Congress and the federal judiciary generally have refrained from interfering with the internal affairs of the States in the administration of justice, subject to review by federal courts of any federal questions involved. (P. 934.) It further cited Jeannette as authority for the statement: The imminence of a trial on a narcotics charge is not such irreparable injury as demands injunctive relief under principles of judicial supervision.

The Supreme Court affirmed, citing both Jeannette and Stefanelli, using this language at pp. 334-336:

. . . That court [the Illinois State Court] whose jurisdiction first attached, retains jurisdiction over this matter to the exclusion of all other courts -- certainly to the exclusion of the Federal District Court -- until its duty has been fully performed, Harvard v. Reddy, 172 U.S. 143, 154; Peck v. Jeppess, 7 How. 612, 624-625, and it can determine this matter as well as, if not better than, the federal court. If, at the original trial, the Illinois court adheres to its interlocutory order on the suppression issue to petitioner's prejudice, he has an appeal to the Supreme Court of that State, and a right, if need be, to petition for 'review by this Court for any federal questions involved.' London v. City of Jeannette, 319 U.S. 157, 163. It is therefore clear that petitioner has a plain and adequate remedy at law in the criminal case pending against him in the Illinois court.

There is still another cardinal reason why it was proper for the District Court to dismiss the complaint. We live in the jurisdiction of two sovereignties. Each has its own system of courts to interpret and enforce its laws, although in common territory. These courts could not perform their respective functions without embarrassing conflicts unless rules were adopted to avoid them. Such rules have been adopted. One of them is that an accused 'should not be permitted to use the machinery of one sovereignty to obstruct his trial in the courts of the other, unless the necessary operation of such machinery prevents his having a fair trial.' Ponzi v. Fessenden, 259 U.S. 259, 260. Another is that federal courts should not exercise their discretionary power 'to interfere with or embarrass threatened proceedings in state courts save in those exceptional cases which call for the interposition of a court of equity to prevent irreparable injury which is clear and imminent . . . ' Douglas v. City of Jeannette, supra, at 163. . . .

. . . 'If we were to sanction this intervention, we would expose every state criminal prosecution to insupportable disruption. Every question of procedural due process of law -- with its far-flung and undefined range -- would invite a flanking movement against the system of state courts by resort to the federal forum, with review if need be to this Court, to determine the issue. Asserted unconstitutionality in the impaneling and selection of the grand and petit juries, in the failure to appoint counsel, in the admission of a confession, in the creation of an unfair trial atmosphere, in the misconduct of the trial court (and, we may add, in the ruling of motions to suppress evidence, and in ruling the competency of witnesses and their testimony) -- all would provide ready opportunities, which conscientious counsel might be bound to employ, to subvert the orderly effective prosecution of local crime in local courts. To suggest these difficulties is to recognize their solution.' Stefanelli v. Minard, 342 U.S. 117, 123-124.

Mr. Justice Stewart concurred specially in the decision, using these words:

I join in affirming the judgment. The petitioner has failed to state a case warranting equitable relief under the standards of Stefanelli v. Minard, 342 U.S. 117, 122, and Douglas v. City of Jeannette, 319 U.S. 157, 163.

Amuch v. Bollinger, Feb. 27, 1961, 365 U.S. 458, was not unlike Wilson v. Schmittler, et al. supra, in its facts, the use of evidence obtained by wire tapping in a prosecution in a state court. The District Judges to which the two cases had been presented refused to grant injunctive relief, and the Court of Appeals of the Second Circuit affirmed, 277 F. 2d 739. In that case the Court relied on both Jeannette and Stefanelli as binding authority, and the Supreme Court affirmed in a per curiam opinion reading: 'The judgment is affirmed on the authority of Schmittler v. Texas, 344 U.S. 199, and Stefanelli v. Minard, 342 U.S. 117.

From these most recent decisions of the Supreme Court I conclude that, without doubt, Jeannette and Stefanelli correctly state the law which has through the years been considered binding upon the Supreme Court in dealing with efforts to induce the federal courts to interfere in state prosecutions except under the most unusual circumstances. My holding with respect to the quoted statute governing habeas corpus is buttressed by these time honored principles governing State-Federal relationships.

For these reasons an order will be entered denying the writ, but retaining jurisdiction of the case for any matters that might arise in it in the future.

This, the 1st day of July, 1961.
